

This lone skier is tackling Saddle Basin at Treble Cone in NZ.

Treble Cone is 20 minutes from Wanaka and an hour from Queenstown.

The Saddle Basin at Treble Cone is known for its extreme natural terrain and powder snow – not to mention gob-stopping views.

The season here starts late June and finishes end of September, so book your Jetstar flights now! Oz Snow Adventures currently have mates' rates for Jetstar passengers to ski Queenstown and surrounds.
